MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION

THE REPORT welcomes manuscripts of OHIO material for proposed publication. All manuscripts should be sent to:

THE EDITOR, 4649 YARMOUTH LANE, YOUNGSTOWN, OH 44512

The manuscript should be typed on standard-sized paper and have the author's name on each page; the pages should be numbered. A cover letter, giving permission from the author to publish the material in THE REPORT, should accompany the manuscript. Restrictions of any kind may not be placed on material to be published.

When sending photocopies of original old manuscripts, such as handwritten Bible records, please send a typed transcript for us to work from; it is usually much clearer on the original in your possession than on a photocopy.

The types of records requested for publication include Bible records, Ohio county court records (marriages, deed abstracts, naturalizations, will abstracts or other), Ohio cemetery inscriptions (not alphabetized), "How-To" articles (the use of special collections, holdings of a particular repository, etc.), abstracts from Ohio newspapers, brief family genealogies with Ohio connections (fully documented) and other material of an unusual but useful nature. The Editor makes the final decision on material to be published. Following publication, all original material is placed in the Ohio Genealogical Society Library in Mansfield. Every effort is made to present authentic material, but the Ohio Genealogical Society cannot be responsible for the accuracy or the publishing rights of the material furnished by contributors. All material is published with the permission of the contributor.

125TH OHIO VOLUNTEER INFANTRY: "OPDYKE'S TIGERS"

Compiled by Carol Willsey Bell, C.G.

This is an alphabetical list of the data supplied in the Official Roster of Ohio Soldiers in the Civil War. There are many errors in names, which show up later in newspaper accounts of reunions of the regiment. General Emerson Opdyke (his own name misspelled!) is buried at Oakwood Cemetery, Warren, Ohio, having committed suicide in New York City. A regimental history, titled OPDYKE'S TIGERS, is an excellent source to add additional material to this data. In addition, it contains photographs of many of the survivors. Data given: name, rank, company, age at enlistment, year enlisted, & comments.

FRANKLIN COUNTY: WORTHINGTON, SHARON TWP., ST.JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CEMETERY

Virginia E. & Robert W. McCormick, 335 Bristol Way, Worthington OH 43085

The attached list of burials in St. John's Episcopal Church cemetery (1825-1843) was taken from an original manuscript kept by George H. Griswold when he served as sexton for the cemetery.

The attached list of names should be checked against transcriptions for St. John's cemetery and other cemeteries in Sharon Township, Franklin County. Many of the names on the attached list do not appear on the transcriptions made by the Franklin County Genealogical Society in 1983 entitled, "Franklin County Cemeteries, Volume 5, Sharon and Perry Townships," since these transcriptions were taken primarily from tombstones. Approximately 125 of the names on the attached list do not appear in other transcriptions.

It is important to note that some burials may not have been listed by G.H. Griswold, although he appeared to be quite thorough in his listing, including burials in the "Presbyterian Burial Ground" after that plot was opened. More important is the fact that burials from 1804 to 1825 probably do not appear on any list unless tombstones survived.

Several significant factors are revealed by the data from the attached list, in addition to the specific individuals who died in Worthington. First, St. John's Cemetery was clearly a "community" cemetery in the early 19th century. Families who were definitely not Episcopalian used the burial ground. Second, the cause of death is recorded for a number of the persons buried during the period George H. Griswold was sexton. Third, the high mortality of infants in early 19th century Worthington is dramatically revealed by these data.

AYRES FAMILY OF HAMILTON & MIAMI COUNTIES, OHIO

by Walter B. Smith II, C.G.
7007 Connecticut Avenue, Chevy Chase, MD 20815-4935

First Generation So Far Found

Richard AYRES was born on 1 September 1747 in Essex County, New Jersey (where Newark is located).[1] He died in late 1832 æ. 85 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio (his probate; see below). He was married on 25 November 1770 presumably in Essex County, N.J., to Mary MILLER. She was born on 25 July 1745 probably in Essex County and died on 5 August 1823 æ. 78 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, and is buried there at Carpenter's Run Baptist Church Cemetery, now called Plainfield Road Cemetery.[2]

Richard Ayres was of the right age to have served in the American Revolution. The only Richard Ayres (Ayers) from New Jersey who served in the Revolution found so far was a Richard AYRES who allegedly came from Monmouth County, N.J., which does not adjoin Essex.[3] The sole Ayres/Ayers from Essex County in the Revolution listed in the published roster was Robert AYRES, of Capt. Josiah Pierson's company, 2nd Regiment of Essex County Militia, who later served in the Continental Army.[4]

Judging by the number of New Jersey soldiers in the Revolution and War of 1812 with the surname spelled "Ayres," there appears to have been a large New Jersey AYRES family in the colonial era: Revolution - Ellis, Isaac, Lewis, Obadiah, Phineas, Reuben, Richard (see above), Robert (see above), Samuel B. (teamster), and Silas (teamster); War of 1812 - Benjamin, David, Frazee, Gersham, Isaac, Israel, John, Joseph, Joshua, Matthias, Robert, Robert A., Simeon, and William.[5]

One or more Richard AYRES' witnessed several wills and inventoried several estates in northern N.J. in the 1780s and early 1790s.[6] Our Richard and his family moved from New Jersey to Hamilton County, Ohio, in 1793. In that year, he and Samuel AYRES, perhaps his brother, were among the original settlers of the village of Montgomery in what became Sycamore Township, Hamilton County.[7]

Richard was a wagon maker. He acquired his land in Section 15 of Sycamore Township from John Cleves SYMMES in trade for his services.[8] Richard and his wife Mary were two of the five founders in June 1797 of Carpenter's Run Baptist Church, two miles west of the village of Montgomery.[9] The location from which the church derived its title was named after James CARPENTER, thought to have been the earliest settler of Sycamore Township. One of Carpenter's daughters became the wife of Judge Francis DUNLEVY.[10] Dunlevy presided over the Court of Common Pleas of Hamilton County from 1805 until 1819. He had as his Associate Judge from 1811 until 1817 James CLARK (1765-1852) of Anderson Township, Hamilton County.[11]

In September 1797, Richard was appointed lay deacon of Carpenter's Run Church. He was its first moderator and gave one acre of his land for the meeting house.[12] He was ordained a deacon in 1800.[13] During the existence of the church, 1797-1828, he held every office except that of pastor.[14] He is of record as a Hamilton County voter in 1798. In October 1802, he sold fifty acres in Sycamore Township to his son Benajah (see below). He appears on the Hamilton County taxpayer rolls in Sycamore Township in 1806, 1808, 1809, and 1810 (the only years checked).

Sycamore Township was established in 1803 at a meeting in the home of John AYRES in the village of Montgomery.[15] Perhaps John was the son of Samuel Ayres, with whom Richard had come to Ohio in 1793 and who may have been his brother. A Samuel Ayres in 1806 and 1808 was a taxpayer of Cincinnati.[16]

In 1815, Mrs. Hannah HILDITCH of Columbia Township, Hamilton County, widow of Samuel Hilditch, an original proprietor of Carpenter's Run, gave two beautiful silver communion cups to the church. They probably were made by the Cincinnati silversmith Samuel BEST.[17] The church finally closed its doors in August 1828 because of the lack of members, and Richard Ayres, as deacon, took charge of the cups. When he moved in 1830 to Miami County, Ohio, he took the cups with him. His grandson, the Rev. Richard Ayres DENMAN, turned the cups over to the Spring Creek Baptist Church in Miami County in 1850.[18]

Richard's wife Mary died in 1823. Their children moved away. To join his son Benajah in Miami County, Ohio, Richard sold fifty acres in Section 15 of Sycamore Township on 27 November 1830 for $800 to Isaac HUNT. His presumed grandson Darius was one of the witnesses.[19] At that time, now aged, Richard moved to Miami County. The nearest place of worship was the Baptist church at Piqua, Miami County, six miles away. Richard was too feeble to attend.[20]

Richard had written his will on 9 January 1829 as a resident of Sycamore Township. He left his land in Sycamore Township to the three sons of his son Richard Jr.: Stephen, Gideon, and Benjamin. To his son Benajah he left his looking glass and to his daughter Hannah, one bed, plus bedding. He made his son Richard and Richard FOSDICK co-executors. The will was proved in Hamilton County on 27 November 1832.[21] The fact that it was proved there and not in Miami County suggests that he must have moved back shortly before, despite the tradition that he died in Miami County. He could have moved back to join his daughter Hannah.

The known children of Richard Ayres and his wife Mary Miller, born presumably in Essex County, N.J. (order uncertain), were:

\+ i. Hannah AYRES, born about 1772; married Abner DENMAN
\+ ii. Richard AYRES, born about 1774; married Patty --- \+ iii. Benajah AYRES, born about 1777; married Susannah (or Susan) ---.

Second Generation

Hannah AYRES (Richard) was born about 1772 presumably in Essex County, N.J. She may have died after 1833. She was married about 1793 presumably in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, to Abner DENMAN. He was born in 1773 in Essex County, N.J., and died in 1833 æ. 60 in Sycamore Township, son of Joseph Denman.[22]

Hannah's husband Abner came to Ohio in 1788 with his brother David and his older sister Molly and her husband Price THOMPSON.[23] Price was a neighbor of Hannah's father in Sycamore Township. Hannah's father mentioned her in his will, written in 1829 (see above).

The children of Hannah Ayres and her husband Abner Denman, born in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio (order uncertain), were:[24]

i. Richard Ayres DENMAN; clerk of Spring Creek Baptist Church, Miami Co., OH, as of Jan. 1850; became a clergyman and res. Pontiac, Shelby Co., OH, as of 1877, when he wrote a family history in the record book of the defunct Carpenter's Run Baptist Church of Sycamore Twp.
ii. Joseph DENMAN; d. before 1877; studied medicine and settled in Auglaize Co., OH
iii. Rhoda DENMAN; d. before 1877 on the plains when her husband, John HUDSON, migrated to Oregon
iv. David DENMAN; living in 1877
v. Cynthia DENMAN; living in 1877
vi. Keturah DENMAN; d. before 1877
vii. Benajah DENMAN; d. before 1877
viii. Mary DENMAN; d. before 1877
ix. Abner DENMAN; d. before 1877; became a Baptist minister in northern Indiana
x. Susan DENMAN; living in 1877
xi. Oliver DENMAN; d. before 1877.

Richard AYRES (Richard) was born about 1774 presumably in Essex County, N.J. He died after January 1829, when his father wrote his will in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, naming Richard executor (see above). He was married to Patty ---.

Richard and his wife Patty became members of the Carpenter's Run Baptist Church of Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, in 1812.[25] In 1806, there was a Richard Ayres who was a taxpayer in adjacent Clermont County, Ohio, who could have been the same person. Record has survived of only one Richard Ayres as a taxpayer in Hamilton County (none in Clermont County) in 1808 and 1809, who probably was Richard's father, Richard. But in 1810, there were two. (Later years have not been checked.)

In January 1829, Richard's father wrote his will, making Richard co-executor and naming Richard's three sons, to whom he left land in Sycamore Township.

The known children of Richard Ayres and his wife Patty —, born perhaps in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio (order as in their grandather Ayres' will), were:

i. Stephen G— AYRES; living in Jan. 1829; the 1850 Census shows a "Stephen S. Ayres" in Hamilton Co. and the 1860 Census, a "Stephen G. Ayres" there; Stephen S. Ayres of Cincinnati, contractor, had a dau. Elizabeth who was married in 1867 to W— H— HARTON (1844-1898), mayor of Newport, KY[26]
ii. Gideon M— AYRES; living in Jan. 1829
iii. Benjamin M— AYRES; living in Jan. 1829.

Benajah AYRES (Richard) was born about 1777 presumably in Essex County, NJ. He died on 30 October 1848 in Spring Creek Township, Miami County, Ohio.[27] He was married about 1800 probably in Hamilton County, Ohio; his wife as of June 1820, Susanna —,[28] and as of June 1830, Susan —,[29] were probably one and the same person. We do not know if she was his first and/or only wife. A Susan AYRES appears with a household in Spring Creek Township, Miami County, in the 1850 Census (p. 330), who may well have been his widow.

Benajah was a voter of Hamilton County, Ohio, as of 1798. He became a member of Carpenter's Run Baptist Church of Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, in 1802.[30] He bought fifty acres in Section 15 of Sycamore Township from his father for $150 on 14 October 1802.[31] He was a taxpayer there in 1806, 1808, 1809, and 1810 (the only years checked).

In August 1816, Elihu CRANE of Sycamore Township named Benajah co-executor of his will, in which he mentioned (among others) his youngest daughter Susanna, then single.[32] (Conceivably, Benajah married Susanna as his second wife.) Benajah was one of the township's four justices of the peace in 1819 and 1829.[33] In 1825, he is mentioned in the deed by which William ROSEBROUGH and his wife Hannah sold land in the township adjoining Benajah's.[34] His presumed son Darius was married in 1824 to a girl named Rosebrough (see below).

As of 1828, Benajah was clerk of Carpenter's Run Baptist Church. On 24 August of that year, the church charged him with delivering its letter of dissolution (for lack of members) to the Baptist Association.[35] When his father wrote his will in January 1829, he left Benajah his looking glass but did not name Benajah's children (see above).

On 4 June 1830, Benajah sold the fifty acres in Sycamore Township that he had bought in 1802 from his father to Christopher CONSTABLE for $800. His wife Susan concurred. One of the witnesses was Darius AYRES, who probably was his son. Benajah stipulated that one acre was reserved as a burial ground and the site for a schoolhouse.[36] He was preparing to move to Miami County, Ohio, which he did shortly thereafter, taking the record book of Carpenter's Run Baptist Church with him.[37]

Within a few months, Benajah's father joined him in Miami County, bringing the two silver communion cups of Carpenter's Run Baptist Church. The nearest church to Benajah's home was the missionary Baptist church in Piqua, Washington Township, Miami County, six miles away. Benajah's father, now aged, was too feeble to attend services there. Benajah did not agree with the religious outlook of the Piqua church and did not join any parish.[38]

As a result, the record book and communion cups stayed in the Ayres family. When Benajah died in 1848, they passed to one of his sons, probably either John or Squire, both of whom died in the summer of 1849 in Spring Creek Township, Miami County (see below). By January 1850, they were in the possession of Richard Ayres Denman, son of Benajah's sister Hannah. Denman was then Clerk of the Spring Creek Baptist Church.[39]

Benajah may be the "B. Ayres" appearing in Spring Creek Township, Miami County, in the 1840 Census (page 440). He and his wife were 60-70 years old and had a male and female both aged 20-30 living with them, plus a female under ten. Other Ayres heads of household in Miami County in 1840 who may have been related to Benajah were Isaac AYRES and Henry V. AYRES, both of the town of Troy in Concord Township (page 357). Isaac reportedly was born in 1800-1810 and Henry, in 1810-1820. One of them apparently was the father of Stephen Cooper AYRES, prominent Cincinnati physician in the late 19th century; the physician's parents moved from Troy to Fort Wayne, Indiana, in 1842, shortly after he was born.[40]

A Miami County probate evidently exists for Benajah under the name "Benjamin Ayres," which has not been checked.

The known (Rhoda), quite likely (John and Squire), probable (Darius), and possible (Arthur) children of Benajah Ayres and his wife Susanna — (mother of Rhoda) or some other wife, born in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, were:

i. John F--- AYRES, born about 1801; died July 1849 in Spring Creek Twp., Miami Co., OH, "æ. 48"; farmer; died from cholera, having been sick only ½ a day;[41] listed in the 1840 Census in Staunton Twp., Miami Co. (it adjoined Spring Creek, Piqua, and also Lost Creek), with a wife under 30 and 3 girls and 5 boys under 15 years of age; perhaps his land overlapped Spring Creek Twp.; or he could have died in the latter twp. while visiting relatives
ii. Darius AYRES, born about 1803; died intestate in 1838 or shortly before in Miami Co., OH (probate--not checked); married 26 Aug. 1824 in Hamilton Co. --- ROSEBROUGH;[42] witnessed the deeds by which his presumed father Benajah and then the latter's father Richard sold land in 1830 in Sycamore Twp.; a Darius AYRES, conceivably his son, appears in the 1850 Cemsus in Adams Twp., Clinton Co., Ohio (p. 395)
\+ iii. Squire Little AYRES, born 21 Aug. 1810

Third Generation

Squire Little AYRES (Benajah, Richard) was born on 21 August 1810 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio. He died on 13 September 1849 æ. 39 in Spring Creek Township, Miami County, Ohio.[44] He was married, 1st, on 6 November 1833 in Hamilton County to Jane GOLDTRAP.[45] She was born on 14 November 1812 in Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, and died on 17 November 1838 æ. 26 in Miami County, daughter of John GOLDTRAP (1773-1830) and his wife Ann VOORHEES (1780-1849). Squire was married, 2nd, on 22 April 1841 probably in Miami County to Rebecca DILL, who was born on 18 Nov. 1820 and died on 5 August 1841 aged twenty, less than four months after the marriage; no issue. He was married, 3rd, on 25 June 1843 probably in Miami County to Elsy Anna MANNING, who was born on 23 July 1821 and evidently died after September 1855.[46]

Elsy had been previously married on 25 January 1838 to William A— DRAKE, who was born on 20 April 1817 and died on 24 September 1840. By him she had Joel A--- Drake, born on 17 March 1839, and Elmira Ann Drake, born on 12 March 1841 and died on 24 March 1843. She no doubt was the "Elsey A. Ayres" who was married on 5 September 1855 in Miami County to Isaiah D--- COUNTS.[47]

Like Squire, his first wife Jane was the child of founders of Sycamore Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, where her parents were married on 5 July 1796.[48] Her sister Nancy Goldtrap (1816-1879) was married there on 12 December 1835 to Frazier Covalt (1814-1876)[49] and moved to Clermont County, OH, as did her brother William.

Squire was living at or near Piqua, Washington Township, Miami County, as of 1836. We learn this from the 1907 burial record of Squire and Jane's daughter Rachel at Milford, Hamilton County, Ohio. The statement to the cemetery of Rachel's widower, Christopher Columbus CLARK, as to the place of her birth in 1836 was recorded as "Pickway County, Ohio."[50] Christopher was not referring to Pickaway County, Ohio, south of Columbus. He meant Piqua, Miami County: Piqua is pronounced phonetically "Pickway."

We do not know where Squire lived with his little daughter Rachel during the 2½ years between his second and third marriages, 1838-1841. Judging from the 1840 Census entry of Arthur AYRES' household in Spring Creek Township, Miami County, Squire and Rachel may have resided there. He was living in that township, which had also been his father's place of residence, when he died nine years later.

Squire's death in 1849 at age 39 came after seven weeks of typhus fever. There was a cholera epidemic that summer in Miami County which, two months earlier, felled his brother John at age 48 in one day.[51] Rachel was Squire's only surviving child from his first marriage when he died. The 1850 Census reveals that, within ten months of his death, his widow Elsy had sent the 14 year old Rachel to live with her aunt Nancy GOLDTRAP and the latter's husband Frazier COVALT in Stonelick Township, Clermont County, Ohio.

Frazier may have been related to Lewis C. COVAULT [Covalt?] (1808-1891) of Lost Creek Township, Miami County, which is only two townships away from Piqua. As of 1850, Lewis was a neighbor of George C— and Priscilla (KNIGHT) CLYDE of Lost Creek Township. Priscilla, whose mother was Patsy CLARK of Anderson Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, was a first cousin of Christopher C. Clark, Rachel's future husband. Conceivably, it was one of the Covalts who escorted the 14 year old Rachel from Miami to Clermont County after her father died in 1849.

We do not know how long Rachel remained with her aunt Nancy after 1850. She grew fond enough of Nancy's son Geniah COVALT (1841-1887) to name a son of her own after him in 1871, Geniah Covalt Clark (born and died in 1871). Her marriage on 30 December 1857 to Christopher C. Clark, when she was 21, took place at Springdale, Hamilton County, according to family records. Neither had any known association with that place. Christopher is understood to have been a resident at that time of Newtonsville, Clermont County, which is next door to Stonelick Township. Perhaps Rachel had gone to Springdale to live with relatives.

The children of Squire Little Ayres and his first wife Jane Goldtrap, born at or near Piqua, Miami County, Ohio, were:[52]

i. Mary Ann AYRES, born 10 Sept. 1834; died 21 Sept. 1835
ii. Rachel Olger AYRES, born 20 May 1836; married Christopher Columbus Clark
iii. John Goldtrap AYRES, born 24 Aug. 1838; died 16 Sept. 1839.

The children of Squire Little Ayres and his third wife Elsy Anna Manning, born probably at or near Piqua, Miami County, Ohio, were:

iv. Phebe AYRES, born 18 Nov. 1844
v. Manning AYRES, born 28 April 1847; died 4 Sept. 1848
vi. Orphah AYRES, born 1 Aug. 1849.

[44]From this point on, all vital data in this article unless noted otherwise are from the Bible of Christopher Columbus and Rachel (Ayres) Clark of Indian Hill, Hamilton Co., Ohio, in the possession of their great-grandson, Christopher Glancy Clark of Cincinnati. It has the dates of their children's and Rachel's parents' and siblings' vital events, but not the places. It is a "Cottage Bible" published in 2 vols. in 1841 at Hartford, Conn. The family record is in vol. 1. Squire's death is confirmed in: Ohio Records & Pioneer Families, vol. 26, p. 109 (taken from the Mortality Schedule, U.S. Census of 1850), although the month given (Aug. 1949) is off by one.

All names are listed in the order that they appear in the census, not alphabetical. Grouping is by township. A good explanation is given as to the method for using the listing. A humerous cartoon in the frontispiece reprinted from The Genealogical Helper, Mar-Apr 1982, reads: "Census Marshall - I jist want to know how many of yez is deaf, dumb, blind, insane and idiotic - likewise how many convicts there is in the family - what all your ages are, especially the old woman and the young ladies - and how many dollars the old gentleman is worth." mew

This is a very detailed work. The families described are in alphabetical order. Most families traced are shown back to the 17th century. 'Perkins' is traced from John Perkins Sr. of England, 1630, back to the early 1500's. In the Appendix, the name 'Dunbar' is traced back to Viking kings, Irish nobility, and Scottish and Anglo-Saxon kings, including Alfred "the Great." Modern history is also included with the story of Charles Francis Bush, electrical genius, of Cleveland. This is very interesting reading. mew

IRISH FAMILY HISTORY. By Marilyn Yurdan. Published by Genealogical Publishing Co., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202. 1990. 194 pp. Illus. Index. Hard cover. $19.95, $2.50 postage/handling ($1.00 each additional book); Maryland residents add 5% sales tax, Michigan residents add 4% sales tax.

This is a very good overview of records available for Irish research. The author gives background information on Irish political and social history and discusses the Famine and its enormous impact on Ireland. One chapter includes sources dealing with Irish emigration to Britain, the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa. Another chapter describes the procedures which were necessary in order to emigrate, as well as the often harrowing journey to the new homeland. The importance of doing basic research yourself is stressed. Helpful techniques for note-taking and interpretation of records are included. One of the new developments in Irish genealogy is a National Genealogical Project in which the County Heritage Centres are computerizing all Irish church records, the 1901 Census returns and the Tithe and Griffith's records. It is to be completed by 1992 and will involve 17 million entries. lm

THE COMPLETE BOOK OF EMIGRANTS, 1661-1699. By Peter Wilson Coldham. Published by Genealogical Publishing Co., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202. 1990. 894 pp. Index. Hard cover. $49.95, $2.50 postage/handling ($1.00 each additional book); MD residents add 5% sales tax; MI residents add 4% sales tax.

The author's previous book covers the period 1607-1660. Together, these two volumes document 17th Century emigration from England to America. Mr. Coldham consulted every source available in English public archives, including customs and treasury records, apprenticeship records, port books, criminal transportation orders, etc. In short, his research has been very thorough. Entries are arranged by year and date of record, and contain, usually, name, age, occupation, residence, ship, destination, and source citation. There are over 30,000 emigrants identified in this book and over 20,000 in the first volume. The dust jacket refers to the author's work as a "monumental feat," and it is indeed very impressive and scholarly - an excellent addition to his other works on Anglo-American genealogy. lm

He was born in Poultney, Vermont in 1800. In 1810 the Walkers came to Athens County to join other Poultney families who had settled there in 1800. Their trip, including a boat trip from Pittsburgh to Marietta, took 11½ weeks. The book describes Mr. Walker's early schooling and subsequent work career. A total of 8,442 entries are included in this extract of Volume 1, Probate Court birth records. Entries are arranged alphabetically and give birthdate, birthplace, sex, parents (often including mother's maiden name), parents' residence and page number of the entry. The compiler used a typed copy of the book and then cross-checked against the original handwritten copy. Many of the births were recorded by the tax assessor and later transcribed to the official court record, thereby affecting the accuracy of the data. Some of the entries are for births which occurred in Kentucky, West Virginia, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and other states. lm

DEATH RECORDS OF WHITE FUNERAL HOME, COOLVILLE, OHIO 1903-1987. Compiled by Barbara Harris. Published by Athens Co. Historical Society & Museum, 65 N. Court St., Athens, OH 45701. 1990. 97 pp. Soft cover. $23.00 plus tax, plus $2.00 shipping.

This is an alphabetical list of 5,127 deaths. Entries contain surname, first and middle names/initials, age, date of death, place of death and burial. Several out-of-state deaths, mostly occurring in West Virginia, are included. The book lacks an introduction. lm

SANDUSKY COUNTY, OHIO U.S. CENSUS INDEX 1850. By Ken Smith. Sandusky Co. Kin Hunters, 1337 Hayes Ave., Fremont, OH 43420. 1990. 329 pp. Soft bound. $25 plus 6.5% sales tax.

This is a unique and thorough index to Sandusky County's 1850 census. Unlike the state index, it includes every name in the census, not just the head of household, along with the age, page citation, and some occupations. Mr. Smith has consulted fourteen different sources to help him identify the person and provide additional data such as the woman's maiden name and relationship. rh

COLUMBIANA COUNTY, OHIO INDEX TO CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS, VOL. 1-14. By Millie Walter O'Dell. 1989. Columbiana Co. Chapter OGS, P.O. Box 861, Salem, OH 44460. 167 pp. Soft bound. $15 plus $.75 tax.

This is an every name index to the fourteen volumes of cemetery records that have been published by the chapter over several years. To use it, look up the name you are interested in and the index will refer you to the volume number it appears in. Then you have to use the index in that volume to find the actual page. rh

VAN WERT COUNTY, OHIO CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS. VOL. IV. RIDGE, JENNINGS, WASHINGTON AND YORK TOWNSHIPS. 1990. Van Wert Co. Chapter OGS, P.O. Box 485, Van Wert, OH 45891. 247 pp. Indexed. Illustrated. $16 plus $2 postage and handling.

This latest volume in the series included over 10,900 names copied from cemeteries in the southeast part of Van Wert Co. It is nicely organized and conveniently punched for a three-hole binder. rh

ASHLAND, OHIO. Ashland Co. Chapter OGS, P.O. Box 681, Ashland, OH 44805. 1990. Illustrated. Soft bound. $4 plus $1.25 postage/handling, plus 6% OH tax.

This booklet about the City of Ashland was prepared to help celebrate its 175th birthday. It includes plat maps showing the original land owners, additions, and later maps, reprinted newspaper articles, lists of householders in the 1820's, and more. rh

EVERY NAME INDEX TO THE 1886 PLAT BOOK OF FARIBAULT COUNTY, MINNESOTA WITH REPRINTS OF SELECTED MAPS. 56 pp. EVERY NAME INDEX TO THE 1896 PLAT BOOK OF COTTONWOOD COUNTY, MINNESOTA WITH REPRINTS OF SELECTED MAPS. 45 pp. Minnesota Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 16069, St. Paul, MN 55116. Each $12 plus $1.25 postage and handling, plus 6% sales tax. Illustrated. Soft bound.

These books are attractive reprints of two county atlases which detail land ownership. They are part of a series that the state genealogical society is preparing. The maps of each township are clear although reduced to 8½ x 11, and the landowners are indexed as to section and township. rh

OHIO CEMETERIES ADDENDUM. Teresa L. M. Klaiber, editor. Gateway Press. 1990. Ohio Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 2625, Mansfield, OH 44906. 168 pp. Hard bound. Indexed. $20 plus $2 postage/handling, plus 5.75% OH sales tax.

This title is a supplement to the Ohio Cemeteries book published in 1978. It does not replace the original edition, but adds new information and should be used in conjunction with the original volume. This book adds new cemeteries that have been uncovered, corrects any misinformation in the first volume, and notes if there are new cemetery publications. rh

ALBRIGHT, CLAPP, BUSH FAMILIES INCLUDING: PHILIP AND ANNA CHRISTINA (CLAPP) ALBRIGHT, THEIR ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS. By Joseph H. Vance, 310 N. Garfield St., Lombard, IL 60148. 362 pp. Hard bound. Indexed. Illustrated. $35.50 plus $2 postage/handling.

Philip and Christine Albright originated in Berks Co. PA and moved to Preble Co. OH in 1805. All but one of their children went to Ohio. The Clapp family originated in PA, but moved to Guilford Co. NC in the mid-1700's. The Bush family lived in NC and moved to OH in the early 1800's. The author has compiled a handsome, well-illustrated book. rh

NANTUCKET QUAKER GENEALOGY. By Robert J. Leach. Vol. I and II. Brookside Business Consultants, Inc., 2330 S.E. Brookwood Ave., Suite 108, Hillsboro, OR 97123. 330 pp. Soft bound. $35 plus $3 postage/handling.

The author, a longtime clerk of the Nantucket Monthly Meeting, has compiled an alphabetical listing of members which contains records of births, marriages, deaths, admissions, disownments, and transfers from the earliest times. Unfortunately, it is hand printed rather than typed. The compiler has used the Eddy-Town Record Fund and the manuscript record of the Nantucket Monthly Meeting. rh
